

NFSUN 2020: Science Education in the light of Global Sustainable Development – Trends and possibilities

The Nordic Research Symposium on Science Education is a forum for the presentation and discussion of research on Nordic science education. The symposium links research and development and welcomes researchers, as well as teachers from all levels of education. NFSUN conference 2020 will take place at VIA University College in Aarhus, Denmark 9th-12th of June.

The NFSUN 2020 theme Science Education in the light of Global Sustainable Development clearly signals the reference to contemporary issues of vital importance globally.
